Edward Fishman offers a thrilling account of one of the most crucial geopolitical subjects of our time, demystifying the invisible infrastructure of global finance and the intricate strategies America deploys to manipulate it, as well as shining a spotlight on the unsung bureaucratic heroes; those unseen "soldiers" on the frontlines of America's escalating economic skirmishes with Iran, China, and Russia.

THE COACH WITHIN
March 2025 | Personal Success / Organizational Behavior
Translation | Manuscript expected June 2024
Agent: authors c/o Portfolio | Editor: Casey Ebro

Be yourself. Be fully present. Be here now. These are the messages we hear constantly. But as former US Navy Captain David Marquet and professor of psychology Michael Gillespie argue, the biggest obstacle to making smarter decisions that drive long-lasting success is ourselves—specifically, our egos. Being fully immersed in our own biased point of view and our inherent need to protect ourselves never results in better outcomes. We need an outside perspective—a coach—that can assess us and the situation we’re in more objectively. This book shows us how to be our own coach and get out of our heads by using three distancing approaches: Be someone else. Be somewhere else. Be sometime else. Drawing on startling scientific research, business cases, and personal stories, THE COACH WITHIN provides powerful practical tools that enable us to become Coach and unlock our full potential.

He is the bestselling author of Turn the Ship Around and Leadership Is Language.

January 2025 | Business History / Geopolitics

Translation | Proposal available; Manuscript expected April 2024

Agent: Peter Bernstein | Editor: Noah Schwartzberg

Acclaimed Washington Post reporter Eva Dou exposes the untold story of the rise of Ren Zhengfei and the mysterious family dynasty at the center of Huawei, whose connections to state apparatus reveal a deeper truth about China's surveillance web and its global ambitions. Through its technologies, Huawei has helped solidify and enforce China's growing police state, in which outspoken entrepreneurs like Jack Ma have been silenced, tycoons have disappeared, and executives must put patriotism above profit. Based on over a decade of on-the-ground reporting and an astonishing trove of confidential documents never published in English, THE LISTENING STATE paints an epic story of familial and political intrigue that shines a clarifying light on how business and government work together in an authoritarian state, and how companies fit into China's international ambitions under Xi Jinping.

November 2024 | Economic Conditions / Artificial Intelligence
Translation | Manuscript expected March 2024

In November 2022, OpenAI released GPT-4 in a chatbot form to the public. In just two months, it claimed 100 million users—the fastest app to ever reach this benchmark. Since then, AI has become an all-consuming topic, popping up on the news, in ads, on your messenger apps, and in conversations with friends and family. But as AI becomes more ubiquitous and grows at an ever-increasing pace, what does it mean for the financial markets? In MONEYGPT, Jim Rickards shares his signature predictions of the danger AI poses to the global financial order, and the insidious ways in which AI will threaten national security. Without human empathy or instinct to intervene, threats like total nuclear war that once felt extreme are now within reach. We must remain vigilant on the question of whose values will be promoted in the age of AI. And it's up to us to intervene with old-fashioned human logic before it's too late.

RIGHT THING, RIGHT NOW: Good Values. Good Character. Good Deeds.

June 2024 | Philosophy / Self-Help

Translation | Manuscript available

Agent: Level Five Media | Editor: Adrian Zackheim

For the ancients, everything worth pursuing in life flowed from a strong sense of justice—or one's commitment to doing the right thing, no matter how difficult. In order to be courageous, wise, and self-disciplined, one must begin with justice. The influence of the modern world often tells us that acting justly is optional. Holiday argues that that's simply untrue—and the fact that so few people today have the strength to stand by their convictions explains much about why we're so unhappy. In this much-anticipated third installment of the Stoic Virtues series, Ryan Holiday draws on fascinating stories of historical figures such as Marcus Aurelius, Florence Nightingale, Jimmy Carter, Gandhi, and Frederick Douglass, whose examples of kindness, honesty, integrity, and loyalty we can emulate as pillars of upright living. RIGHT THING. RIGHT NOW. is a powerful antidote to the moral failures of our modern age, and a manual for living virtuously.

TOXIC EMPATHY: How the Left Exploits Christian Compassion

April 2025 | Political Science / Religion

UK and Translation | Manuscript expected April 2024

Agent: Maura Teitelbaum | Editor: Bria Sandford

Empathy can be a powerful form of Christlike love. But for the Left, it's taken on a new and dangerous meaning. Like "tolerance," "acceptance," "justice," and "love," the Left has hijacked empathy—playing upon our desire to be compassionate to silence opposition to their views. Allie Beth Stuckey calls this tactic "toxic empathy." The consequences, ironically, are dire for society's most vulnerable. In this book, Stuckey exposes the logical pitfalls and dire moral consequences of the Left's "toxic empathy," arguing that our feelings are often an unreliable, dangerous guide. The uncomfortable truth, she shows, is that when our politics is informed by our feelings rather than God's law, innocent people pay the price. TOXIC EMPATHY equips conservatives with common-sense, Biblical truths that dismantles toxic empathy from its core.

Allie Beth Stuckey is the author of You're Not Enough (And That's Okay) and host of the podcast Relatable, where she analyzes culture, news, and politics from a biblical perspective.

RAD FUTURE

April 2025 | Energy Policy

UK and Translation | Manuscript expected in April 2024

Agent: Folio Literary Management | Editor: Helen Healey-Cunningham

When it comes to nuclear energy, we've been sold a bad meme. Everywhere you turn – the news, pop culture, even your hippie grandmother – you hear about the downsides, including freshwater lakes that glow an alien green and the six-eyed fish that live in them. Nuclear energy influencer Isabelle Boemeke is on a mission to prove that nuclear power is the safest, cleanest, most effective form of energy we have – and that we can't win the war against climate change without it. In this myth-busting romp through science and history, Boemeke challenges nuclear power's negative connotations, showing us how a few highly preventable disasters have led us to wrongly shut down dozens of safe, efficient nuclear plants across the globe. And though wind, solar, and other renewables are part of the equation, nuclear energy is the secret sauce that could finally end our dependence on fossil fuels. RAD FUTURE is proof that a peaceful, equitable, sustainable future built on nuclear power is not just science fiction.

Isabelle Boemeke is the world's first nuclear energy influencer, known for her viral Tiktok videos. In the wake of the 2019 Amazon rainforest wildfires and the Australian bushfire season, Boemeke began using her social platforms to advocate for nuclear power as a solution to climate change.

September 2024 | U.S. History / Political Science

UK and Translation | Manuscript available

Sharon McMahon tells the inspiring stories of twelve Americans—regular people with human foibles—whose extraordinary heroism in the face of mounting trials created the character of our country. With the same clarity and candor that's earned her millions of fans, McMahon follows the daughter of formerly enslaved parents who sparked a reformation in Black education, a Japanese immigrant who nearly died in combat and became a consequential Senator, and a suffragette who changed the course of the movement. The unforgettable prose and meticulous research tell the story of America from the perspective of the unsung heroes whose devotion to their country will restore your faith in the American dream.

Sharon McMahon is a former high school government and law teacher who earned a reputation as "America's Government Teacher" for her viral efforts on Instagram to educate the general public on political misinformation. Through a simple mission to share non-partisan information about democracy, Sharon has amassed hundreds of thousands of followers online, affectionately called the "Governerds," who look to her for truth and logic in a society plagued by bias and conspiracy.

Agent: InkWell Management | Editor: Helen Healey-Cunningham

Pornhub was the 10th most visited site on the Internet, often praised as a progressive champion of women. Then one day, an activist discovered a secret they had been keeping from the world for over a decade: it was infested with child sexual abuse and rape videos. Now for the first time, anti-trafficking expert and mother of two Laila Mickelwait tells the story of her battle against Pornhub's billionaire executives and the credit card companies who helped them monetize the abuse of countless victims—some as young as three years old. Readers will follow her from her first horrifying discovery of criminal content on Pornhub to closed-door meetings with credit card executives, White House and Justice Department senior officials, a powerful hedge-fund manager and more. TAKEDOWN is the true, never-before-told story of how Mickelwait mobilized a movement of two million people and together they accomplished “the biggest takedown of content in Internet history.”

Laila Mickelwait is the Founder and CEO of the Justice Defense Fund and the Founder of the global #Traffickinghub movement supported by millions around the world. She has been combating the injustice of sex trafficking for over a decade and is a leading expert in the field.
